

OPERATION SOD

(Save Our Dealership)

In an effort to saving the important history of past dealerships, Oliver Heritage & Heritage Iron has initiated "Operation SOD". By gathering information on your local dealership, we can create a database to preserve the history of these great agricultural businesses. We can't do it alone so help us if you can. We can't bring them back, but together we can help others remember them.

Name of the Dealership: _____

Location: _____

Is the building still there? _____ If answer is no, when was it torn down? _____

If answer is yes, what is building currently used for? _____

1st Year in Business: _____ Last Year in Business: _____

What brand of tractors were sold there? _____

Employees names associated with this dealership: _____

Why was this dealership started? _____

How large of an area did this dealership cover? (i.e. just the town, entire county, 200 miles circle) _____

Did this dealership have noteworthy company awards? (i.e. top volume sales, President's Honor) _____

Was there one particular model of tractor or equipment that they sold large quantities of? _____

Were there other dealerships selling different brands close-by? _____

Please return form to:
3-Point Ink
PO Box 519
Greenville, IL 62246

Form can also be e-mailed to: sherry@3pointink.com (618-664-1550)
Form can be faxed to: 618-664-9116